A REVIEW.....

An overview of constraint analysis for improvement of dairy farming profession in India

AARTI BHATELE

ABSTRACT.....Strategic planning of various projects and schemes regarding dairy farming made India, a top milk producer of the world. The history of these projects is very inserting and important for future planning to achieve new benchmarks in dairy sector. Since, India lags behind in global trade of milk and milk products, the different constraints of dairy farming in various regions of India need to take care of in order to enhance desired growth and economy in dairy sector.
